Synopsis

WAREHOUSE OPERATIONS MANAGEMENT AND SAFETY WORKSHOP (WOMS) 2025

CILT Ghana invite you to its 2025 WOMS Workshop. Warehouses and inventory management are critical components in effective supply chain management in all organisations and instrumental in ensuring the efficient delivery of superior customer service.

Considering the changing trends in Warehouse Operations, it beholds on professionals to constantly upgrade their knowledge and skills and to stay on top of issues.

This year's WOMS aims to equip participants with the latest strategies and technologies to optimize warehouse operations, enhance safety, and improve productivity. It will focus on addressing warehousing resource efficiency, automation, solving critical challenges and workforce development.

Programme Main Objectives

The 2025 WOMS are to empower professionals and practitioners with:

- enhanced skills, knowledge and understanding of modern warehousing and inventory operations;
- understanding the strategic role and importance of warehouse in the supply chain;
- tools and insights needed to ensure efficient and cost-effective warehouse operations;
- the attitude and analytical mind-set to plan processes;
- enhance effective inventory control and stock management/analysis techniques;
- learn to improve performance in the warehousing and inventory function

Training Contents

The two (2) day Workshop will treat the following content:

A. Optimizing Warehouse Operations

- Key Components of Warehouse Management
- Optimizing Warehouse Space
- Material Handling Efficiency
- Security and Loss
- Warehouse Hazards and Controls
- Overcoming Warehouse Logistics Challenges

B. Inventory and Stock Control

- Function of Stock and Spares
- Maintaining Inventory Accuracy
- Stock Control-Coding
- Inventory Improvements Strategies
- Inventory Management System
- Inventory performance

C. Warehouse Robotics Optimization and Efficiency

- Warehousing Automation
- Types of warehouse automation
- Robotics in Inventory Management
- Robotics in Order Fulfillment
- Comparison of Robotic & Traditional Warehouse Operations
- Safety and Maintenance of Robotics in Warehouses

D. Warehouse Productivity and Service Levels

- Key costs & Productivity Drivers
- Efficient Consumer Response (ECR)
- Key Customer Service Measures.
- Warehouse Supervision Cycle
- Effects of Substandard Service
- Minimizing Errors

Our Delivery Methodology

As noted by all our programmes, they are Instructor-led and are delivered using a blended adult learning approaches comprising of interactive presentations, case studies analysis, guided sessions of practical exercise and group work. Our Facilitators are seasoned industry experts with years of experience working as professionals.

Who Should Attend?

The Workshop is beneficial to a wide range of personnel, especially:

- Warehouse Managers/Officers
- Stores Managers/Officers
- Inventory Managers/Officers
- Procurement Managers/Officers
- Logistics Managers/Officers
- Supply Chain Managers/Officers
- Stock Controllers
- Sales Managers/Officers
- Distribution Managers/Officers
- Operational Managers
- Health and Safety Officers and Managers
- Head of Institutions

Contacts:

For further enquires, contact Frank on 050-722 5190 or Patience on 0256-6847128 or email events@ciltgh.org.